

Pro-Vision Academy Charter School
High School English Language Arts I-IV
Distance Learning Plan
Week of April 20-23, 2020

English I-V
(Suggested: 90 minutes per week of off-line activities)

Note: You do not have to write the questions when completing assignments, just write the answers. You may also take a picture of your assignments with your cellphone and email them to your teachers. Please email completed assignments to: kwhitten@pvacademy.org

English I- II

Monday: Reading & Writing Objectives

Planning & Drafting

Objective: Persuasive Essays

STEP 1:

1. First, think about the following topic: “Should High School Students Be Allowed to Wear Their Preferred Hair Styles in Schools? You may also select another topic that is important to you.
2. Next, watch the following clip before you begin planning and prewriting.
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Rmq1tTSOncU2>,
3. Use the graphic organizer below to help you write a persuasive essay on “Should High School Students Be Allowed to Wear Their Preferred Hair Styles in Schools? or another issue that is important to you.

STEP 2:

- In the first column of the chart, record three issues that make you want to take action.
- In the second column, write your opinion on each issue.
- In the third column, write any opposing views you can think of.
- Put a star next to the issue you want to write about. Then write a working thesis statement.

Issue	My View	Opposing Views

Tuesday

Write Your Thesis Statement:

Wednesday-Friday

DRAFTING YOUR ESSAY

To present your ideas effectively, you will need to put them in a sensible order. Creating an outline can help you plan your essay.

Directions: Use the following outline to help you plan your essay. Make sure you think of at least one answer, or counterargument, for every divergent view.

I.

A. _____

B. _____

II

A. _____

B. _____

III

A. _____

B. _____

Friday

Submit a copy of your draft on Friday.

English III and IV

Submit Eng. III assignments to erem@pvacademy.org
Submit Eng. IV assignments to rcourtney@pvacademy.org

Monday: April 20, 2020

Note: You do not have to write the questions when completing assignments, just the answers. You may take a picture of your assignments and email them to your teachers.

Planning & Drafting Essays

Objective: Persuasive Essays

STEP 1:

1. First, think about the following topic: “Should High School Students Be Allowed to Wear Their Preferred Hair Styles in Schools? You may also select another topic that is important to you.

2. Next, watch the following clip before you begin planning and prewriting.
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Rmq1tTSOncU2>,

3. Use the graphic organizer below to help you write a persuasive essay on “Should High School Students Be Allowed to Wear Their Preferred Hair Styles in Schools? or another issue that is important to you.

STEP 2:

- In the first column of the chart, record three issues that make you want to take action.
- In the second column, write your opinion on each issue.
- In the third column, write any opposing views you can think of.
- Put a star next to the issue you want to write about. Then write a working thesis statement.

Issue	My View	Opposing Views

Tuesday

Write Your Thesis Statement:

Wednesday- Thursday: Writing Objectives

DRAFTING YOUR ESSAY

To present your ideas effectively, you will need to put them in a sensible order. Creating an outline can help you plan your essay.

Directions: Use the following outline to help you plan your essay. Make sure you think of at least one answer, or counterargument, for every divergent view.

I.
A. _____

B. _____

II
A. _____

B. _____

III
A. _____

B. _____

Friday: Writing Objectives

Submit your draft on Friday.

NOTE

If you have questions or need help with your assignments, please email:

English III: erem@pvacademy.org

English IV: rcourtney@pvacademy.org