Reading and Writing Activities

Mrs. Curb

TEKS: PC.3B

Monday

Note: Keep a writing log for daily activities.

Quote: "Things turn out best for the people who make the best of the way things turn out."
– John Wooden

Writing: Create a paragraph describing why it's important to remain positive in challenging situations.

Tuesday

Reflect: Think about someone in your life that exudes positivity.

Writing: Write a paragraph reflection piece describing how that person displays positivity and what you can learn from them.

Share: Share your thoughts with that person or someone close to them.

Wednesday

Reflect: It's Wacky Wednesday! Imagine that you were given the opportunity to meet with a politician. What politician would you like to speak to? What concerns would you address? What suggestions would you make?

Writing: Create a t-chart. On the left side, list at least five concerns you would share with a politician. On the right side, list at least five suggestions you would make.

Thursday

Writing: Create a two paragraph letter to a politician of your choice expressing your thoughts on things that are working well, concerns, inquiries, and suggestions you would like to make.

Friday

Reflect: Reflect on our restorative justice word of the month, Perseverance.

Writing: Create a paragraph answering the following questions. Be specific in your answers.

- 1) Describe the meaning of perseverance in your own words.
- 2) How do you maintain perseverance?
- 3) What is an example of perseverance? (This example can be about you or someone else).
- 4) Why is it important to have perseverance?
- 5) What are the effects of perseverance?
